

Cafes string the sides of the bazaar

People through the market

Colourfull stalls brighten up your weekend

Weekend Bazaar

Ground Level, The Curve at Mutiara Damansara

TEXT BY CAZE

Come the weekend there is a distinct feel of festive excitement in the air at The Curve, Mutiara Damansara. Bright colourful canopy tops pierce the skyline signaling the arrival of the weekend flea markets.

There are a wide variety of stores selling everything from potted plants to party supplies along with the more traditional weekend market fare like caricature artists and funky accessories. This bazaar has something to offer everyone.

The markets are flanked by cafes and restaurants making it no trouble at all to duck in quickly for a snack and a tall cold one before resuming the hunt for that elusive bargain. The markets begin at 10am in the morning with stalls closing at 5pm on Saturdays and Sundays.